

Less Than Jake – The Science of Selling Yourself Short

Intro

| F | Am | Dm | C | x2

Verse 1

F Am Dm C
I've come to my senses, that I've become senseless,
F Am Dm C
I could give you lessons on how to ruin your friendships,
F Am Dm C
Every last conviction, I smoked them all away,
F Am Dm C
I drank my frustrations, down the drain, out of the way,
Dm Am Dm
And so I sit and wait and wonder,
 Am Gm
"Does anyone else feel like me?"
 C Gm C
Someone so tired of their routines and disappearing self-esteem

Chorus

Bb F C
I'll sing along, yeah with every emergency,
Bb F C
Just sing along, I'm the king of catastrophies,
Bb F C
I'm so far gone, that deep down inside
Bb F C
I think it's fine by me, cos I'm my own worst enemy

Verse 2

I could be an expert on co-dependency,
I could write the best book on underage tragedy,
I've been spending my time at the local liquor store,
I've been sleeping nightly on my best friends kitchen floor,
So I sit and wait and wonder,
"Does anyone else feel like me?"
I'm so over-dosed on apathy and burnt out on sympathy

Play Chorus

Bridge

Dm Am
Let the meaning slip away
Bb F F-C
Lost my faith in another day,
Dm Am
Self deprecation seems okay,
Bb C
I never thought I'd make it anyway

Play Chorus

Outro (fade)

F Am Dm Bb - C
That I'm my own worst enemy
F Am Dm Bb - C
Cos I'm my own worst enemy
F Am Dm Bb - C
And I'm my own worst enemy
F Am Dm Bb - C
Cos I'm my own worst enemy
